

Funeral Pricing Information

As per Fair Trading (Funeral Pricing) Regulation

It is a requirement under the “Display and provision of funeral information to prospective customers” section of the Qld Governments Fair Trading (Funeral Pricing) Regulation 2022 to publish these details on our website.

If you require a clearer idea of funeral costs and what they cover please click on this link – Funeral Pricing

Funeral Goods and Services

Transport of the deceased during normal business hours from place of death to our own mortuary facility in Newstead.	The cost of the first 50 kilometres travelled during the transfer of your loved one is included in each of our professional service fees. Any kilometres travelled after that is charged at $4.00 per kilometre. Additional one off fee of $580 for transfers outside business hours.
The safe keeping, care and standard preparation of your loved one at our facility.	This is included in each of our professional service fees and depending on level of mortuary care required or requested by family, this can range from $450 to $1310
Hire of Refrigeration Plate.	N/A, not a funeral directors item of equipment.
Coffins.	These range in price from $1698 to $4575.
Caskets.	The range in price from $3675 to $6030.
Viewing of the deceased.	A one half hour viewing is included in each of our professional service fees. Extended viewing time after hours is calculated at $190 per hour or part thereof.
Arrangement and Conduct of a funeral service in business hours.	Our professional service fees range from $3620 to $6020.
Transport to funeral Service, Cemetery or Crematorium	Alex Gow Funerals has a fleet of purpose built vehicles for transporting the deceased.
Cost of Cremation.	$647 or $1071 including use of chapel for 1 hour at Great Northern Garden of Remembrance.
Cost of Burial.	Reopen of a BCC grave starts at $2282, new lawn graves start at $4687.
Certified Copy of Death Certificate.	$57 including postage.
Permission to Cremate (Form 4).	Third party doctor charge of $79.
Simple service at a Crematorium.	$7558